“Sinful Speech and a Sinless Savior” (James 3:1-12)

“There are few sections of Scripture which are so graphically relentless in making a point. In addition, this is the most penetrating (and convicting) exposition of the tongue anywhere in literature, sacred or secular” ~ R. Kent Hughes

Sinful speech leads to _____ conflict, resulting in _____ in the body of Christ.

As followers of Christ, what we say should be motivated by love (Eph. 4:15), appropriately timed (Eph. 4:29), beneficial to others (Eph. 4:29), and glorifying to God (1 Cor. 10:31).

1. Our words reveal our _____ for the gospel (vv.1-2).

2. Our words have life-shaping _____ (vv. 3-8).

3. Our words reveal the _____ of our _____ (vv. 9-12).
